Where They Play To-Day. Reveland at St. Louis. Washington at Philadel. New York at Boston. Detroit at Chicago.

Yesterday's Results. St. Louis 5, Cleveland 2 | Chicago 4, Detroit 2. Detroit 1, Chicago 0.

The "Prodicals" celebrated their return to St. Louis yesterday by a well-earned victory over Mr. Armour and his flock of "blue birds" from Cleveland. The final score stood 5 to 3 in favor of St. Louis.

Primarily the cause of the locals' "win" was their ability to hit Wright whenever hits meant runs. Cleveland touched Slevers's delivery for ten hits, but with men on bases the Grand Trunk fireman would put on a little extra steam, with the result that six of Larry Lajole's colaborers in the field of swatology were left to wilt their collars and tan their complexions between

BROWNS' CHILLY RECEPTION. Although the hot sun had melted all the thermometers about the baseball park, the Browns received a reception that would have frosted a band of returning Klonnike

Owing to a delay in making train connections, the players of both teams arrived nearly an hour late at the park. The Browns filed in the Grand avenue gate near the clubhouse and attracted about as nuch attention as the park policemen. When the "Blues," led by Lajole, filed their way down the field their were warmly welcomed by the fans.

It was a patched-up feam that McAlcer presented to the fans, and Jimmy deserves presented to the fans, and Jimmy deserves full credit for being able to win against Cleveland, considering the crippled condiion of his club.

Burkett was back in his old place at left, but Hemphill was moved over to center to take Heldrick's place. Heldrick is out of the game with a broken tendon. Just how Heldrick shattered the tendon is a mystery. Some say that Emmett strained himself trying to separate himself from a bunch of "long green" while pur-chasing neckties, and others assert that the big center suburbanite slipped on a banana peel. Martin McAleer's new man went to right, while Billy Friel moved into second base. With this patched-up team and Dona-hue's absence McAleer has his hands full of troubles.

THE WRONG MR. WRIGHT.

Eugene Clarence Wright, who twirled for the "Blues," proved to be the "wrong Mr. Wright" yesterday. "Gene" started to steer the 'Blues' to victory, but by the time the elongated slabman reached the sixth inning he ran into a bunch of hits that smashed his trolley and gave St. Louis the game. Usually Clarance is the right Mr. Wright in the right place on the pitcher's mound, but yesterday the local batsmen used Mr. Wright in a way that threatened the directors of his accident insurance company with an attack of heart failure.

the third inning Martin slammed one Wright that nearly splintered his shing at Wright that nearly splintered his shins, but the big slabman managed to toss him out. Scarcely had "Gene" finished rubbing the bumps on his shins when Hill slammed another at the human buil's-eye that nearly tore off his left foot.

In the seventh liming Wallace met one of Wright's wrong shoots and sent the sphere off his bat like a rifle shot. Wright reached up for it with his ungloved hand. He got his. With a resounding whack that could be heard a block away the ball slapped Mr. Wright on the wrong wrist.

With a look of pain on his face Eugene reached over the right mitt and after satisfying himself that he was not shy his wrong mitt he began pitching again. That was about all the actual damage the locals

SOME HEAVY BATTING.

Larry Lajoie and Charley Hickman unlimbered their heavy artillery for a couple of raps that made the locals shiver. In the fourth inning Larry met one of Slevers's shoots and nearly knocked down the left-field fence with the rap.

Some of the unsophisticated players on the St. Louis team marveled at the dimensions of the swar, Larry beheld their astonishment with surprise. "Wat are you guys peepln' at?" queried Larry from second base, where he was safely perched, after the rap. "Oh, we were just trying to see whether you knocked down the fence or not." replied the "Brownies" in chorus.

"Is dat ail? Well, just watch," replied Lajoie as he smiled at their astonishment. In the sixth inning as Lajoie stepped up to the plate some fan yelled, "Hit 'er out, Larry," "All right, old college chum of mine," responded Larry as he broke a seat or two in the bleachers back of Burkett. Hickman was surprised at the way the local fans acted. "Home runs must be a scarce thing in Hickman was surprised at the way the local fans acted.

"Home runs must be a scarce thing in this town," observed Hickman, as he ambled up to the pan in the eighth period "Just watch this sample," yelled Hick to Larry, as he pushed the ball a few feet higher up in Eleacherville than did Larry, a few innings before, scoring Lajole ahead of himself.

HOW THE RUNS WERE MADE.

In the first two innings both sides were blanked, but the locals scored one in the third, on singles by Seiver, Burkett and Friel. Friel.

In the fourth and fifth both teams took a little more kalsomine off the top. In the sixth the Browns broke up the game by scoring three runs on singles by Wallace, Hemphilis and Sugden's sacrifice hits, Siever's double and Burkett's single. Lajolo scored a run for Cleveland by driving the ball in the bleachers in the sixth.

Anderson's single, Wallace's hard rap to Wright and Sugden's single gave the locals another run in the seventh. In the eighth Lajole's single and Hickman's home run gave Cleveland the last two tailles of the game.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Chicago, July 26.-Patsy Donovan's Cardinals hooked up with Frank Selee's Microbes for a four-game series this afternoon. The visitors proved rather easy picking, and Chicago stepped into second place in the league race by a score of 9 to 1. The fact that Bob Wicker did the twirling stunts for the Microbes must have caused Captain Donovan to further regret the rash moment when he released the youngster. When Wick pitches against St. Louis the easy-going manner noticeable in his other games is lacking. He was out for scalps to-day and allowed but seven hits, while he struck out six men.

O'Neill was off on his throwing to second. This was discovered early and four Microbes purloined the sack. "Dusty" Rhoades was not touched to any great extent, but the Microbes were lucky in bunching their drives, and this, with their good base running, clinched the game. Hackett and Davy Jones were the leaders with the stick. Hackett secured a double and a triple, while Jones laced out a threebagger in the fifth inning, sending two runs over the plate. Davy also made a beautiful one-hand running catch. SCORED IN THE FIRST.

Selec's men started scoring in the first inning. With Single out, Casey and Chance were sent around on a double, a single, a pass and a put-out. The visitors came back with one in the second, which was their only run. Barclay reached first on Evers's error and came home on Hackett's threesacker. From then on to the end of the game the locals were never in danger. In the fourth Harley was sent around for a score without a hit being made to aid a score without a hit being made to aid him. He was hit by a pitched ball, stole second and went on to third on O'Neill's had throw. He scored on Kling's fly to right. With the aid of an error, the Microbes made three runs in the fifth on a pass, a single and a three-bagger. Kling added another in the sixth on two singles, a sacrifice and a fly.

The locals started some clever base-tunning in the seventh, and two stolen bases, two singles and a pass brought in Chance and Eyers for the last two runs.

$1,00 PER WEEK for Treatment,

BETTER CHANCES OFFERED BETTORS

Past Week Was Profitable to Spec ulators on the Delmar Race Course.

Mr. Hayes's Gelding Should Win the Fifth Race Without Any Trouble-Ivernia an Unknown Quantity.

Bettors had a profitable week at Delmar for the six days preceding last Saturday. Each day saw three or four good bets on the card. In several notable cases, those of Doctor Cartledge, Fitzkanet, Light Opera and Tony Lepping, inordinately long prices were laid bettors. It is to be trusted that the profesdonals will have as good a week during the coming six days. The first race to-day is not an attractive one from a betting standpoint. On perform-ances Wigwam looks best. Sadie Burch ls, however, a fair one, and ran a fair race for a first out last time. She acted like a resolute filly, which will improve with each race. Toupee has not any form in public, but is highly spoken of on what has been done in private. Rebo is also well spoken of, but does not seem to be ready to race, Major Carpenter is a slick looker, and has worked well. They backed him heavily last time out, and he ran a bad last, due, probably, to greenness at the barrier. Folies Bergere is said to be terribly fast, Folles Bergere is said to be terribly fast. They bet on her for a good thing one day. She displayed her speed and looked all over a winner to the stretch turn, where she ran out. She may have learned better since. She belongs to W. Gardiner, who has a way of putting them over under Troxler.

All in all, it is a dangerous race to meddle with. Wigwam is the legitimate favorite on form, but Sadie Burch's last race was so impressive that The Republic will go to her to win.

Her to win.

SISTER LILIAN LOOKS GOOD.

It is merely a question of Sister Lilian getting away in the second. She will win off by herself if she can lie in behind Harry getting away in the second. She will win off by herself if she can lie in behind Harry Griffith and Aylmer Bruce to the stretch, where they will stop. Noweta had a stormy passage last time, but ran a race good enough to win here if she has good luck.
Sid Silver will run a good race and is bound to be a contender. Mayor Graham will show improvement under a good boy. He needs a vigorous ride at all times. Toteta has worked well, but is light and of weak ankles. Crime has not shown anything. Fe-ronia and Griffith will stop and Aylmer Fluce seems solely a half-miles. Mathide will be about her, while var Verde is said PEACH JUICE HAS CHANCE. On Peach Julie's one good race at the Fair Grounds he should win the third race, Rigyme and Reason, Roules and Benton cam to have more substantial changes, hough his one good race mokes Peach luice lock better. He probably will be a HOW GOOD IVERNIA REALLY IS.

How good IVERNIA REALLY IS.

There is not any telling just how good Ivernia really is. On Saturday hast she had all the run choked out of her by E. Austin, who twisted her neck doubte in the mile and one-eighth race in an effort to rate her with her field. If he had let her go on there is not a doubt that she would have won, as Josic F., the favorite, was slow to begin, and had bad racing lack. Had Ivernia been sent on she would have won beyond a doubt, as he was strong at the end even after being choked for a mile and an eighth. She probably ran is much better race than they wanted or expected her to run. She is a good-looking fresh 4-year-old mare hig listly, ambior expected her to run. She is a good-looking fresh 4-year-old mare, hig, listy, ambitious and game. She holds Eva G and W. B. Gatter dead safe on her races with them. Kansas Lily is of no more present account than her stable companion, Actine, as Mr. Cheny has beat his trainer. Lady Strathmore hid Maud Gonne busy last time and Doeskin ran her too hard to make Maud worthy of consideration here. So the race comes down to Ivernia and Miss Mae Day. Mae Bay looks like the rational favorite, though Maud Gonne should have besten her when last they met. However, Ivernia's race on Saturday looked so much as if it was run with the object of getting a price on her here that she must not be allowed to pass. It matters not if she goes up in the hetting, as the Sires do not bet on their horses in the local ring. They have been fortunate and have managed well and the management of Ivernia has been exceptionally fortunate. Her race on Saturday seemed to be run with an eye on her price in the betting this afternoon.

STAND PAT IS BEST.

Stand Pat is plainly the best of the 2-yearolds in the fifth. How would Bas d'Or look in here? Stand Pat beat Bas d'Or. The fight for the position will be smart, but Pettijohn should bent Pirateer for second money. The owners will have had all Sunday to work on the race and it may pay bettors to kneelly observe the condition of the market during the play on the race.

Stand Pat, however, locks like a real good thing, just as good as Bas d'Or would be in his place. He is a true 1-to-3 shot if ever there was one. At that Mr.
Hayes has not been fortunate with favorites and this one ran a poorish race last time out.

LAST RACE A HARD ONE.

and this one ran a poorish race last time out.

LAST RACE A HARD ONE.

If Dick Vestal has King's Sister ready she will not be far from the money to-day. She was a clever 2-year-old and cost a pretty penny. She is in light and if she has her speed will win. Axares ran a sturdy race for six furlongs last time, and will do better to-day. That race will serve him, as he ran it strongly.

It might not be surprising to see King's Court run a good race. He displayed a nice quarter behind Hilee one day that would give him a chance anywhere. Str Paul is an old Fizer horse, and a good looker, but never showed anything. Carley's Dream likes Delmar, and it might be that he will run a good race. Deerhunter has completely lost his form. General Dix needs a stronger and more vigorous ride than a ninety-pound lad can give him. Immortelle's last race was bad, though Mr. Nolan thought she would about win. She was off in front and did not have any mishaps. Baronet has shown steady improvement, but probably wants to go farther.
